The Amy Gilbert Memorial Award

This Award has been established by the friends and family of Amy Gilbert and honours her passion for the environment and social justice. Amy had decided to pursue a degree in naturopathy, and it was her dream to see medical doctors and naturopathic doctors working together to help others reach diagnosis and treatment sooner. This Award will be given to a student at The University of Winnipeg in any major within the Faculty of Science, with the intent of pursuing studies in naturopathy. If such a candidate cannot be found, it will be awarded to a Second- or Third-Year student majoring in Environmental Studies and Sciences, who has completed course work, done research or has an interest in the Environmental Lakes Area.
