

2019-20 ELF award winners:

Faculty member, Urban & Inner-City Studies

Project: “Inner-City Work Study”

Faculty member, Business & Administration

Project: “Student Human Resourcing Co-Operative Firm Development”

Faculty member, Criminal Justice

Project: “Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Preventing Wrongful Convictions”

Faculty member, Environmental Studies and Sciences

Project: “From Forest to Fuel: Work-Integrated Experiential Learning on Bioenergy”

Faculty member, WGS

Project: “Experiential Project-Based Learning in the Greenhouse Artlab”

Faculty member, Sociology

Project: “Out of the Classroom and Into the Community – Field Trips as an Experiential Learning Tool in the Sociology of Race and Ethnicity”

Faculty member, Urban and Inner-City Studies

Project: “Langside Learning Garden –Establishing a Land-Based Community-University Partnership”

Faculty member, Criminal Justice

Project: “Using Photography to Teach Community Corrections”

Faculty member, Education

Project: “ToyBox: Supporting Young Children with Strategies for Enhancing Literacy, Numeracy and Wellness at Home and School”