Include with application:

1. A reasonably full account of your life including important events, educational experiences, relationships with important persons, and the impact of these on your development. (Approx. 4-8 pages in length, single spaced)
2. A discussion of your faith development, the decision to enter ministry, and your current career goals.
3. Your impression of Clinical Pastoral Education and your experience with it, if any.
4. A description of an incident in which you were called on to help someone; the nature of the request, your understanding of the request, how you attempted to help.
5. Copies of evaluations of previous Supervised Pastoral Education courses, if any. Include supervisors' and self evaluations for all Clinical Pastoral Education and Pastoral Counseling Education units.

Note that a current Criminal Record check and/or Child Abuse Registry check is required if you are accepted into the CPE program. By signing this application you signify that, to your knowledge, you are not under investigation for abuse of any kind.

The teaching supervisors within the region will consult with each other to determine the best placement and distribution of students to optimize the learning experience. If accepted for an interview, you will meet with a team that may include one or more supervisors. The purpose of the interview is to discuss your goals and the program requirements in greater detail. Decisions regarding admission of applicants will be made following these interviews.

All SPE supervisors have program approval from and are certified by the Canadian Association for Spiritual Care (CASC).

Note: If currently enrolled at an educational institution other than the U of W you will need a letter of permission in order to register for this course.
